Premier Ministre Li Keqiang
The State Council of the People's Republic of China
No. 8, Yuetan South Street, Xicheng District, Beijing
Peoples' Republic of China 100017
Email: premier@mail.gov.cn

I am writing to you on behalf of the International labor network of solidarity and struggles, to strongly condemn the arrests and detentions of a number of Shenzhen Jasic Technology Co., Ltd. workers in Guangdong province on July 27 2018.

We would like to express our deep concern to their current conditions and query the legitimacy of their respective arrests. By establishing their own trade union to defend their labour rights in a lawful manner, the arrested workers are merely exercising their rights to freedom of association as guaranteed by Article 3 of the 1992 China Trade Union Law. Thus, such arbitrary arrests and detentions are blatant violations of their basic labour and civil rights.

The right to freedom of association is protected by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (Article 20). And according to Article 2 of International Labour Organization Convention No. 87, workers shall have the right to establish and to join organizations of their own choosing without previous authorisation. As a member of the United Nations and ILO, the People's Republic of China is obliged to respect and observe the basic principles of freedom of association. Regrettably, your government's recent exercise of state power to suppress the aforementioned workers to organize their own union in accordance with the law and instructions from the upper-level union demonstrated a contrary to such principles. Moreover, we regard Article 9, 10, & 11 of the 1992 China Trade Union

Law is in itself a violation of freedom of association. Under such stipulations, trade unions are impossible to be organized independently in accordance to the principles as laid down by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and ILO Convention No. 87.

Under such circumstances, we would like to call on the Chinese Government to:

1. To immediately release all the aforementioned arrested JASIC workers and their supporters;
2. To drop all criminal charges on the aforementioned arrested JASIC workers and their supporters;
3. To remove all measures placed on the aforementioned arrested JASIC workers and their supporters that may restrict their civil liberty;
4. To allow the aforementioned JASIC workers to form trade union without any state hindrance.

We will follow next events in this dramatic case with the greater interest and we will inform all the unions of the world, members of the International labor network of solidarity and struggles and of other networks and international trade union confederations.

Sincerely,
Stéphane Enjalran
On behalf the International labor network of solidarity and struggles
